Constituents seeking help with a federal agency or other issues urged to make an appointment to speak directly with Bass

August 15, 2011

COLEBROOK, NH – Congressman Charles F. Bass (NH-02) today announced that he will host a series of constituent office hours over the next month in Colebrook, Salem, Concord, and Nashua to meet with individuals one-on-one.

The first constituent office hour will be held on Tuesday, August 30, 2011 in Colebrook. Constituents seeking a 10-minute meeting with Congressman Bass on a federal issue should call his Concord Office at (603) 226-0064 to make an appointment during the office hours. Appointments will be reserved on a first come, first-served basis.

Bass said:

“I strongly believe that constituents should have direct access to their elected representatives, and that’s why I have been spending my time in New Hampshire meeting with individuals, business owners, seniors, and local officials. In an effort to give constituents an opportunity to speak with me one-on-one about any federal issue, I will be hosting a number of open office hours throughout the Second District. I encourage constituents to contact my Concord Office to make an appointment.”
